Discover your inner jester, actor and storyteller roots with The Jester's Legacy, a Gregson Theater hands-on interactive storytelling theater arts workshop exploring acting, storytelling, mime skills to launch your jester's journey! Directed by Barbara L. Gregson, theater artist, director, and author.

This is a fun and creative theater-making workshop for all skill levels. We will begin with theater warm-ups, games, followed by storytelling, acting and mime techniques, such as 'fixed point' and 'tableaux vivants' and culminating in final group improvisational performance pieces.

Space is limited, so please register by calling
The Gatehouse (607-285-4111) or Barbara (215-850-7443).
Walk-ins are allowed if space is still available.
